

Mapping Our Love Story

Literally the first picture of us together. Never could've imagined what was coming up next. Hee hee.

Hw awkward it wasss. Literally dying. I was so happy to get a picture with you but you know things were awkward between us. Idk if you remember. Maybe last endsem tha 1st sem ka orr apne, dhruv, Khushi orr yash khade the orr thodi der baad wo log chale gaye taki apan baat krr sake and apn ne kuch nai bola tha ek dusre ko. Even yeh bhi nai ki paper kaisa gya (face palm emoji)

And the iconic date of march 21st. Still can't get over the fact that I successfully executed the plan of faking that I'm a nice guy and you should date me and jokes on you that you actually fell for it. Hee hee. Just kidding pyari tanusha. I've already told you my story thousand of times but that day I realised that maybe we're compatible.

Hbw did you choose to stay with me even after I clicked such an horrendous picture of yours. Even I can't explain what was going through my mind at that time. It's just I wanted to click pictures and was too shy to ask for it so best option was to first click a random picture and then we'll click more and then this happened.

Why do I look so scared in all these old pictures of us (crying emojis). Obviously, I was too happy that I'm with you and it felt so nice to be with my girlfriend. Good old times. I remember I told Yogant and mikku that I drove tanusha's scotty and she rested her head on my back. Those small things made me so happy (they still do).

I first café date after we started this beautiful relationship of ours. We went to krozzon after our classes. That was the first time I guess I ever went to a café, had coffee with you. This time took pictures of you. Even you took pictures of me and I think you must have gotten the idea of my awkward smile. Is my smile still awkward or you've just accepted the fact ki kuch nai ho skta iska?

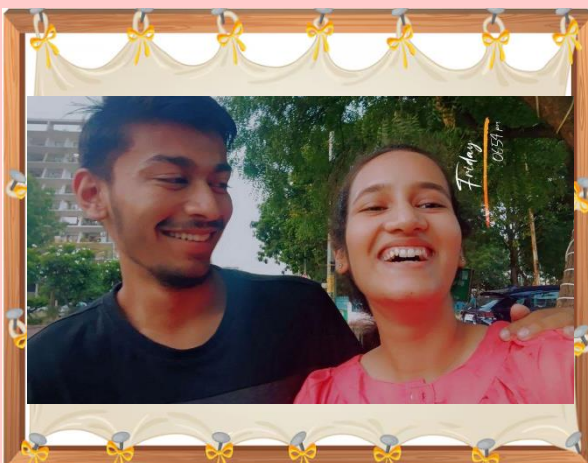

Us going to TNT for the first time. Just us. I used to enjoy those time so much, especially because of the stories I got from you. Like who you used to like, how you used to put effort for them (kiddin). But seriously those were the moments I would love to live again if I could. The awkward holding hands

The Monroe date. Just look at these pictures. This was probably the first time I actually felt that we do look together warna iske pehle sachi maine jinn jinn logo se pucha toh they weren't that impressed but tbh I didn't care about this because I genuinely loved you mi amor from the very first day. Only thing which made me happy was to be with you and seeing that. Another

Just added this one we looked so happy with each other. This was the day when we had our programming mst and I came directly from college to some bakery ig. I have always been so excited to meet you. Even though we were literally in same class, sitting together daily and still we'd never felt the time we spent together was enough.

Last day of 2nd sem I said that this could be the last time we are sitting together in a class. Idk why but it felt like everything is gonna come to end. Like you would find someone else and gonna leave me. I used to be so scared and sad regarding all this. I think sometimes it makes tough for you when you love someone so much

(14/06/23)

Our date before endsem prep leaves. I was genuinely sad pyari tanusha that day. I was scared that this might be the last time we're together like this. Looking back, I know I over thought everything and you actually loved me back. It's just I wasn't able to feel it the way you wanted to or intended to whenever you put some effort or something. But this date was special. I even proposed you "PROPERLY" which you consider the actual proposal. I used to be so shy Infront of you (I still am).

(27/07/23)

Another picture I added just because I thought we looked cute in this one. Our IP practical. Giving you all the love, affection and care I have to the love of my life; this is actually the peak of my life. I'm literally living the dream a common guy. To be loved by his pasandida aurat. Fuck dude, I'm crying. My life feels so special with you (multiple crying emoji).

(28/07/23)

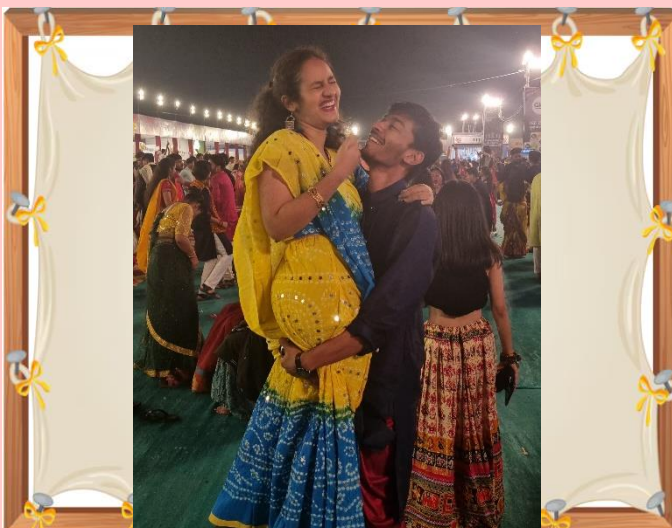

We really are cuties pyari tanusha. The bestest date of all time. Enjoyed it so much. A happy end to the 2nd semester where it all started and going to 3rd with me being sceptical (classic overthinker). But you looked so pretty pyari tanusha. We looked so good. I enjoy every bit of time I get with you and it stinks when it's time for good byes. But this was the best day. PERIOD

Start of our 3rd semester. After long wait of 10 days apn milne wale the. But tumhara timetable hi nai aaya and I had enough. It was impossible for me to be away from you after this long time. So, I decided to skip class and come and meet you. Bought you smooth, held hands, walked around and spent some time together. I look so happy when I'm with you

(11/07/23)

Seeing you in traditional after so long. Sai bata rha I still regret not marrying you and making you mine forever. You were just that gorgeous that night (you always look beautiful but that night was different). For me it was extra special because it was durga puja and was this the first festival that we celebrated together? Still get butterflies thinking of u

Our Library study session. For me they were "Café dates minus coffee minus money". We held hands and literally did everything we do at cafés. It's not like we didn't study. We did study a few times but mostly we used it as a place where we could spend some time together. Hee hee.

The last date before end sem prep leave. I was so happy that our relationship survived this sem. We had a lot of fights and disagreements in this one. Mostly because lack of communication. I used to think ki Why is she not putting the efforts. Does she even wanna stay with me and all those over thinking thoughts. But I'm glad it turned out to be good. I think all our fights actually make us closer and stronger than ever. This is the best part about us that we improved and made everything better.

(18/11/23)

Your birthday. I was so happy that you were happy that I came to your birthday. It was a very special day for me after it was my wifys birthday. I was so happy when I saw you in that red dress. For the first time I actually felt like my jaw dropped. Fr dude, to witness you in red in a blessing. You told me I looked good too and at that point it felt like I've just completed some achievement. My crush just said I was looking good(dead)

(1/2/24)

Another picture of us studying in library. Hee hee. Skipping classes is not a good idea but if it means to get to spend more time with you, yeah, I'm up for it. We got so less time together now that this is all we got. A few minutes here and there in a week. Tum bht pyari ho pyari tanusha. Sachi me (crying emojis).

Me forcing you to smile for the picture. Well, I guess I was making your face turn toward me but tum kitti cute lag rhi isme. Meri gol si pyari si Tanusha. If you couldn't figure it out by now, this one is from a video of our when we were waiting for dhruv and asmi. Whenever I look at you and you have khule baal, it just melts my heart everytime. You look super pyari in it.

Just look at yourself. Ain't my wife the most beautiful, gorgeous angel to ever grace this planet with her presence. I was so shy to hold you like that with dhruv and asmi looking at me. But I got to hold you soft tummy. Please let me sleep on it. I mean let me use it as a pillow whenever we get a chance 😊

February 2024 was the best one we had in recent time. We spent so much time together. My birthday, Dhruv's birthday and the whole aayam Honestly all the time which I get to spend with you is totally worth it. Being around you automatically makes my life so joyful and happy again. I love you pyari Tanushaaa 🥹 (crying emoji)

At the end of this treasure map lies the greatest treasure of all—your love.

You are the treasure I found and cherish more than anything in this world

Looking back to our journey I feel so much confident and secure that we have that potential to not just be together through our college lives but we can actually make it through and spend our entire lives together.

You were so great through out all this time. Understood me. You were so patient with me, my feelings. Took care of me. I don't think anybody else could have loved me the way you did for this past year. I admire how you never ever complained about me being a baby and throwing tantrums and I really am grateful to you for handling me the way you do so effortlessly.

I'm so excited for what future holds for us. I'm damn sure even if someday our bond weakens, I would never ever give up on you. Why? Because you never did. Wherever you go, you'll find me by your side having your back in the toughest of the toughest situation. Why? Because you always do the same for me. I'll always be loyal and truthful to you and I also promise to improve myself so that you don't ever find me irritating and boring🥰

Once again A happy 1 YEAR anniversary M AMOR I hope our bond strengthens and becomes impeccable. I love you cutie.

CHITRANUSHA FOREVER

(was it all or you missed something at that heart page)
